

“The Cost of Following Christ”

June 26, 2011—Pastor Drew Carroll

Luke 14:25-33

As we consider what Christ says it means to follow him, we will see that following Christ entails:

1. Being DEVOTED to him above anyone else. (Luke 14:25-26, John 6:22-70)
2. Continually SACRIFICING who we were for who He is. (Luke 14:27, 9:57-62)
3. A COST that should be considered before we commit. (Luke 14:28-32)
4. A radical ABANDONMENT of everything we previously sought in life for His glory. (Luke 14:33, Mark 10:17-22, Matthew 4:18-22, Matthew 13:44)

Refocusing Summit #2

First Baptist Church of Aurora

June 26, 2011—4:30-7:30pm

As we have together considered how God has been at work in our church's past during Refocusing Summit #1, now is the time to discover where God is leading in the future.

On Sunday, June 26, please plan to participate in a time of considering appropriate ministry values that will lead us into the future and of reexamining the community in which we minister. Martin Jones, from the Summit Baptist Association, will lead our church family in a time where we seek to discern and discover the unique plan and destiny God has for our future.

for our future.

Please be in prayer as together we examine our values and the communities God has called us to serve.
